LOYOLA USES ST. LAWRENCE SCRIMMAGE TO PREP FOR MCGILL

Tomorrow at 2:00 p.m. on the Loyola Campus the Warriors will meet St. Lawrence University of Canton, New York for a controlled closed scrimmage. The game will be the highlight of two and a half weeks of training in preparation for the big non-league McGill game on September 15. This will be the fourth time Loyola and arch football rival McGill have kicked-off the local college sports season. Since its conception this key game has grown in popularity as a result of Athletic Directors Ed Enos of Loyola and Harry Griffith of McGill deemed it necessary to move the game to Molson Stadium and to further accommodate the college crowd play it under the lights at 8:00 p.m. on a Friday night. With this ideal setting and time a turnout of over 8,000 college football fans is expected. McGill has won all three previous encounters played at Loyola with the Warriors showing steady improvement. Last year the Warriors lead throughout the game only to lose out in the final minutes of play on a 30 yard field goal 17-12.

At Loyola's Fifth Annual Football Press Day yesterday Head Coach George Dixon announced that end and fullback Brian Marcil, Safety Joe Manzoli and guard Steve Niemirowski had been elected Tri-Captain for the 1969 season. Marcil and Manzoli were both named for the Eastern Division of the C.C.I.F.C. All-Star team last year.

As a preliminary to McGill, Dixon will send against St. Lawrence an offensive lead by quarterback Gary Plante, speedy halfback Frank Delvedere and veteran flanker Terry Whelan. Along the front line Tony Fajaczowski has come with a hard-hitting line which average 215 lbs. "If games are won and lost in the line like so many experts claim", says Pajackowski, "we will win our share".

Line standouts during the camp have been end Dwayne Dudgeon and center Layne Boivin. The reports on the defensive line are even more impressive with Tri-Captain Brian Marcil a number one draft choice possibility and his aggressive partner Claude Beaudry manning the defensive end positions. Bulky Bob Miele at 280 lbs. and 260 lbs. Greg Iodice anchor the defensive tackle spots. Experienced linebackers John Cawsey, Doug Martel, Mike Sylvia and Leo Conrad will no doubt create additional problems for Loyola opponents. The Warrior's complete training camp roster is as follows.
